DISCOVERS $400,000 CONCEALED IN TREE

Arizona Cowboy Finds Iron Box Filled With Old Spanish Gold.

HIDDEN YEARS AGO

Was Buried by Priests Who Left Country.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Sept. 14.-Discovery of $400,000 hidden in the hills of Graham County is reported by H. D. Wheelman of Solomonville, who is now in Chandler, near here. The discovery was made by Joe Walsey, a cowboy. While hunting stray cattle northwest of Solomonville. Walsey found a tree trunk from which the ROOMS for boys. Mrs. Trimble to Preach in Kansas.

Mrs. Nelson H. Trimble will depart for Merriam, Kan., October 1, to take the pastorate of the Christian Church there, if the condition of her voice will permit. Mrs. Trimble is just recovering from an operation for throat trouble. Her throat was so severely affected that she could scarcely talk. The trouble was brought on, it is believed, through overwork in revivals that Mrs. Trimble has been conducting at several points in Missouri.

"It hasn't been easy for me to get through the University," said a student the other day.

"I have had to make my own way and there have been times when everything seemed to be against me. But THE CO-OP has been of real service to me. I soon learned that it was conducted by students for, students. I have gotten back each year a nice little share of the money that I spent there."

Of 13 Boys 6 Join Army

Last year the CO-OP employed thirteen students to serve their fellow-students. Six of these 13 boys are now in the army serving their fellow-countrymen. The CO-OP needed these boys but is glad to let Uncle Sam have them a while.
